

Mountain Writers Series at The Press Club

KEVIN CLARK

Poetry Reading

8:00 PM, Wednesday
August 17, 2011

Suggested Donation $5

The Press Club
2621 SE Clinton, Portland OR

—Kevin Clark is the author of two volumes of poetry, Self-Portrait with Expletives, which won the Pleiades Press contest, and In the Evening of No Warning, which earned a grant from the Academy of American Poets. His poetry has appeared in numerous magazines and collections, including The Georgia Review (and Keener Sounds, The Georgia Review's fortieth anniversary retrospective), The Antioch Review, College English, Gulf Coast, Ploughshares, The Iowa Review, and The New York Quarterly. He teaches American literature and creative writing at Cal Poly in San Luis Obispo, and during the summers serves among the faculty for the Rainier Writing Workshop, a low-residency MFA program, in Tacoma, Washington.

