

Mountain Writers Series

POETRY READING

DORIANNE LAUX & CARL ADAMSHICK

July 8, 2011

Friday

7:30 PM

The Old Church

1422 SW 11th

Portland, OR

Tickets: $10

—Dorianne Laux is the author of five collections of poetry, most recently The Book of Men (W.W. Norton, 2011). Other books include Facts About the Moon, which won the Oregon Book Award; Awake, What We Carry, finalist for the National Book Critic's Circle Award; and Smoke, as well as two small press editions, Superman: The Chapbook and Dark Charms, both from Red Dragonfly Press. She lives in Raleigh, N.C., where she teaches in the MFA program at North Carolina State University.

—Carl Adamshick was selected as the winner of the 2010 Walt Whitman Award, one of the most prestigious first book prizes in the country, for his collection of poems Curses and Wishes (Louisiana State University Press, 2011). The Award includes a $5,000 cash prize and one-month residency at the Vermont Studio Center. Adamshick, who lives in Portland, is co-founder with poet Michael McGriff of Tavern Books,

