

Mountain Writers Series

Readings at The Press Club

MATT LOVE & CARLA PERRY

7:30 PM, Wednesday
April 16, 2008

The Press Club
2621 SE Clinton
Portland OR

Suggested Donation $5

—Matt Love is publisher of Nestucca Spit Press and the author/editor of the Beaver State Trilogy: Grasping Wastrels vs. Beaches Forever Inc.: Covering the Fights for the Soul of the Oregon Coast; The Far Out Story of Vortex 1; and Red Hot and Rollin': A Retrospection of the Portland Trail Blazers' 1976-77 Championship Season. He teaches English and history in the Lincoln County School District on the Oregon Coast and is currently editing Citadel of the Spirit, an anthology of essays commemorating Oregon's upcoming sesquicentennial.

—Carla Perry, a graduate of the Iowa Writers Workshop, is founder of Writers On The Edge and the Nye Beach Writers' Series, now in its eleventh year on the Central Oregon Coast. She received the Oregon Governor's Art Award, the Stewart Holbrook Special Award, and an Oregon Literary Arts Fellowship in fiction. Her poetry, essays, interviews, short stories, and photos of authors have been published widely. She is the owner of Dancing Moon Press, the mother of Zac "Canyon Guy" Perry, at Reed College, and grandmother of Marion, almost three years old.

Mountain Writers Series · 2804 SE 27th, #2 · Portland OR 97202 · 503.232.4517 · pdxmws@mountainwriters.org
www.mountainwriters.org

Mountain Writers Series is supported by the National Endowment for the Arts, Poets & Writers, Inc. and MWS members.