

Mountain Writers Series

Maggie Anderson & Judith Barrington

Reading

7:30 PM, Monday

February 12, 2018

Ford Food & Drink
2505 SE 11th, Portland 97202

Suggested Admission $5.00

Maggie Anderson is the author of five books of poetry, most recently Dear All (Four Ways Books, 2017). Earlier titles include Windfall: New and Selected Poems, A Space Filled with Moving, Cold Comfort, and Years That Answer. Her awards include two fellowships from the National Endowment for the Arts, fellowships from Ohio, Pennsylvania, and West Virginia councils on the arts, and the Ohioana Library Award for contribution to the literary arts in Ohio. The founding director of the Wick Poetry Center and of the Wick Poetry Series of the Kent State University Press, Anderson is professor emerita of English at Kent State University and now lives in Asheville, North Carolina.

Judith Barrington's fifth collection of poetry, Long Love: New & Selected Poems will be launched on June 12th. She is also the author of The Conversation (2015), whose title poem was the winner of the Gregory O'Donoghue International poetry award. In 2001 Lifesaving: A Memoir was the winner of the Lambda Book Award and a finalist for the PEN/Martha Albrand Award for the Art of the Memoir. Judith is also the author of the best-selling Writing the Memoir: From Truth to Art and has been a faculty member of the University of Alaska, Anchorage's MFA Program. She has taught workshops around the U.S. as well as in Britain and Spain and is one of the founders of Soapstone Inc.

Mountain Writers Series • programs@mountainwriters.org ~ www.mountainwriters.org

OREGON ARTS
COMMISSION

Mountain Writers Series — Serving the literary community since 1973